CONFESSION OF SINS

O Lord, our God, I am so grateful that I can count on You being You no matter what is going on. You are my rock. You are my redeemer. You are my faithful friend. I confess a problem, however. I do not like the notion that it is my job as Your person to be faithful like that even when it costs me something, even a great deal. I just as soon skip some chapters in other people’s lives. I would rather have You stand with them then come back when things settle down. In short, I don’t want to live some of the things I worship in You. Forgive me when I do not. Bring me back. In Christ’s Name, Amen.

Silent Meditation

Words of Assurance: ³¹ If God is for us, who can be against us? ³² He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? Romans 8:31b-32
